A GORGEOUS model who stripped completely naked, fondled her breasts and crotch, and simulated sex acts on an Argentine TV dance show is under investigation by the authorities.

Dancing With The Stars contestant Cinthia Fernandez and her dance partner Marcello Tinelli left viewers stunned and the show's host with his head in his hands after a hyper-erotic dance routine which would not have been out of place on a porno flick.

Oh, and if showing her pussy on live TV weren't bad enough - her mom and dad were in the audience.

The pair began the "dance" reclining on a white bed in togas, with the moves becoming progressively more sexually explicit.

At one point, Tinelli poured a jug of red wine over Fernandez huge boobs which she dutifully fondled before ripping off her tiny G-string, leaving her fully naked with her pussy in her partner's face..

Argentina's Federal Authority of Audiovisual Communications Services (AFSCA) is reportedly now considering imposing penalties on Channel 13 for broadcasting the risqué episode.
